

[illegible]

1. I am the Vice President of Information and Knowledge Management at Viacom Inc. I have worked at Viacom Inc. since May 2000, when I was joined the company as Director of Litigation Support. I make this declaration in support of Viacom's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on Liability and Inapplicability of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act Safe Harbor Defense. I make this declaration on personal knowledge, except where otherwise noted herein.

2. The named plaintiffs (“Viacom”) create and acquire exclusive rights in copyrighted audiovisual works, including motion pictures and television programming.

3. Viacom distributes programs and motion pictures through various outlets, including cable and satellite services, movie theaters, home entertainment products (such as DVDs and Blu-Ray discs) and digital platforms.

4. Viacom owns many of the world's best known entertainment brands, including Paramount Pictures, MTV, BET, VH1, CMT, Nickelodeon, Comedy Central, and SpikeTV.

5. Viacom's thousands of copyrighted works include the following famous movies: Braveheart, Gladiator, The Godfather, Forrest Gump, Raiders of the Lost Ark, Breakfast at Tiffany's, Top Gun, Grease, Iron Man, and Star Trek.

6. Viacom's thousands of copyrighted works include the following famous television shows: The Daily Show with Jon Stewart, The Colbert Report, South Park, Chappelle's Show, Spongebob Squarepants, The Hills, iCarly, and Dora The Explorer.

7. Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. § 1006, attached hereto as Exhibits A-E are summaries of evidence relating to Viacom's ownership of the audiovisual works that were infringed on YouTube and that are at issue in this litigation ("Works in Suit").

8. Exhibits A-E were prepared at my direction and summarize documents that have been produced to Defendants during discovery. Each exhibit identifies the Viacom Bates numbers corresponding to each document summarized in the exhibit.

9. Viacom owns or controls the copyrights or exclusive rights under copyright in the Works in Suit listed in Exhibits A-E.

10. Exhibit A summarizes evidence relating to Plaintiff Viacom International Inc's ownership of Works in Suit, including the title of the work, the episode of the work (if applicable), the copyright registration number, the name of the copyright registrant, chain of title information (if applicable), and the Bates numbers where the evidence may be found in Viacom's document production.

11. Exhibit B summarizes evidence relating to Plaintiff Comedy Partners' ownership of Works in Suit, including the title of the work, the episode of the work (if applicable), the copyright registration number, the name of the copyright registrant, chain of title information (if applicable), and the Bates numbers where the evidence may be found in Viacom's document production.

12. Exhibit C summarizes evidence relating to Plaintiff Country Music Television Inc.'s ownership of Works in Suit, including the title of the work, the episode of the work (if applicable), the copyright registration number, the name of the copyright registrant, chain of title information (if applicable), and the Bates numbers where the evidence may be found in Viacom's document production.

13. Exhibit D summarizes evidence relating to Plaintiff Paramount Pictures Corporation's ownership of Works in Suit, including the title of the work, the episode of the work (if applicable), the copyright registration number, the name of the copyright registrant, chain of title information (if applicable), and the Bates numbers where the evidence may be found in Viacom's document production.

14. Exhibit E summarizes evidence relating to Plaintiff Black Entertainment Television LLC's ownership of Works in Suit, including the title of the work, the episode of the work (if applicable), the copyright registration number, the name of the copyright registrant, chain of title information (if applicable), and the Bates numbers where the evidence may be found in Viacom's document production.

15. A copy of each Work in Suit was produced to Defendants in discovery.

Infringement of Works In Suit

16. Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. § 1006, attached hereto as Exhibit F is a summary of information regarding the infringing video clips that were copied from the Works in Suit and that appeared on YouTube without Viacom's authorization ("Clips in Suit"), and that are the subject of Viacom's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment.

17. Exhibit F lists 62,637 Clips in Suit that collectively infringe 3,085 Works in Suit listed on Exhibits A-E.

18. Exhibit F was prepared at my direction and summarizes information that has been produced to Defendants or is in the possession, custody, or control of Defendants.

19. The first column of Exhibit F identifies, for each Clip in Suit, the Viacom Plaintiff that owns the copyright interest in the infringed Work in Suit.

20. The second column of Exhibit F identifies, for each Clip in Suit, the title – and (if applicable) the episode information – for the infringed Work in Suit.

21. The third column of Exhibit F identifies, for each Clip in Suit, the copyright registration number for the infringed Work in Suit.

22. The fourth column of Exhibit F identifies, for each Clip in Suit, the universal record locator (URL) for the location on the YouTube website where the Clip in Suit appeared.

23. The fifth column of Exhibit F identifies, for each Clip in Suit, the YouTube Video ID for the clip. The Video ID is a unique identifier assigned by YouTube.

24. A team working under my supervision matched each Clip in Suit listed on Exhibit F to the Work in Suit listed on Exhibit F by watching and listening to each clip and comparing it to the work the clip infringed.

25. A team working under my supervision also matched the copyright registration data for each Work in Suit to each Clip in Suit, and recorded that information.

26. Viacom has not authorized Defendants to copy, distribute, reproduce, display, or perform the copyrighted audiovisual content contained in the clips listed in Exhibit F.

27. Attached hereto as Exhibit G is a list of 408 infringing video clips that were copied from Viacom's copyrighted works and appeared on YouTube without Viacom's authorization, but as to which Viacom is not moving for summary judgment at this time. These clips consist primarily of outtakes and bonus footage from Works in Suit, as well as clips from unregistered episodes of Viacom-owned television series. These works were all identified to Defendants on Viacom's October 15, 2009 Amended Clips in Suit List as "unregistered." Although Viacom is not moving for summary judgment as to these infringing clips at this time, Viacom does not waive its claims concerning these clips.

Defendants' Deployment of Digital Fingerprinting to Block Unauthorized Content

28. Viacom and Defendants initially signed an agreement in February 2008 for Defendants to use digital fingerprinting technology to prevent the infringement of Viacom's copyrighted works on the YouTube website. That agreement was later modified in May 2008.

29. Defendants implemented digital fingerprinting to prevent the infringement of Viacom's copyrighted works on the YouTube website in May 2008.

Viacom's Limited Use of YouTube for Promotional Marketing Purposes

30. I am familiar with Viacom's use of YouTube in limited circumstances to display promotional marketing clips, such as trailers of movies and television programs.

31. In connection with this limited promotional marketing, Viacom generally used accounts that were set up with YouTube's assistance or that were known to YouTube to be authorized Viacom accounts, including but not limited to: "paracount," "paramountvantage," and "paramountclassics" – which were used by Paramount Pictures Corporation – and "MTV2," "SpikeTV," and "vh1staff" – which were used by MTV Networks, an unincorporated subsidiary of Viacom International Inc.

32. In connection with this limited promotional marketing, Viacom also hired third party marketing companies, including but not limited to Wiredset and Fanscape, which used YouTube accounts with names such as "wiredset," "fanscapevideos," and "fanscapemtv." To the best of my knowledge, the authorized activities of Wiredset and Fanscape were also known to YouTube.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 3 day of March, 2010, at New York, New York.
